BYRON REESE

FUTURIST - TECHNOLOGIST - ENTREPRENEUR

"Byron is an insightful and inspiring speaker on the future of AI - and the changing nature of what it means to be human. We were thrilled to have Byron share the CTA stage at CES last year."

Gary Shapiro, President & CEO, Consumer Technology Association.

Consumer Technology Association

Byron's talk was spectacular.... He kept the audience engaged throughout the presentation both through the thought provoking topics he discussed as well as the visual images he included. On top of all this, he was exceptionally easy to work with before, during and after his presentation. He truly made my job easier.

-Kevin Houser, P.E., Director, IP Strategy, Johnson & Johnson

J.P.Morgan

Byron was awesome! His session has gotten very positive feedback on our post-meeting survey, and it's been fun to hear references to his presentation come up in meetings over the past week. And as a communicator I'm still in awe of his deck. So awesome!

-Sarah. S., JP Morgan

It was a pleasure having Byron Reese on our campus. Not only was his presentation to nearly 400 faculty stimulating and well-received, he also was personable and generous with his time in discussing ideas with faculty before and after the presentation. Byron's visionary approach and dynamic style provided an instant connection to the audience.

-Robert Neely, Professor of Biology, Provost & Vice President for Academic Affairs, Texas Woman's University

Byron kicked-off our event with a great, future-focused Keynote presentation, giving us his predictions for technology's influence on small business lending. Attendees enjoyed his well-informed outlook for our industry and continued the conversation for the duration of the conference.

Both engaging and informative, I would recommend Byron as a speaker for anyone hosting a similar event.

-Curtis C., VP Marketing for Orion First, host of the Small Business Lending Forum

Byron was an absolute hit and everyone truly enjoyed hearing his insights on the intersection of history, technology and our future.

His passion and energy on the subject matter is unmatched! Further, we greatly appreciated all of the time he spent with our team and guests.

-Patience Baldwin, Crestone Capital Advisors

Byron delivered what he promised: a customized presentation that provided an insightful and uplifting backdrop to further discussion on technological trends. I am very grateful that Byron stayed after the presentation to meet the audience and offer autographs to everyone.
